C. H. S. SHOWS ITS SPIRIT!

During Pep Week 1988, the student body put forth a valiant effort, both in signs and spirit. The Sophomore's signs (left) were colorful and creative earning them second place. A few dilligent Juniors put in some long hours, but unfortunately they took fourth place. The Seniors were finally rewarded for their efforts with a well deserved first place. The Freshmen (bottom left) show their enthusiasm at the Pep Assembly by tossing the remains of their Homecoming float into the air! Also at the Pep Assembly, the cheerleaders presented a great new routine.

Homecoming is always a busy time at Carrollton. (Top left) During the Powderpuff game, Senior quarterback Karen Schwartzly eludes the Junior defense. (Top right) At the Homecoming Dance, Queen Trina Carson graciously accepts the souvenir football from Master of Ceremonies Jason Lichau. (Middle) The romance of the evening was captured in this slow dance scene. (Bottom left) The varsity players get a chance to catch their breath as they await the snap. (Below) "Are we done yet?" The varsity cheerleaders aren't quite sure as they finish their "Mac Tonight" skit.

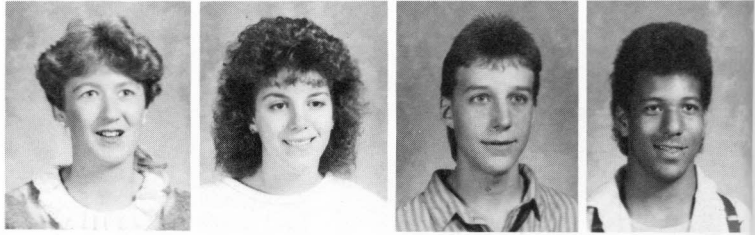

Reflecting on Carrollton's 25th anniversary, the theme for the float competition was "Historical Events of the Past 25 Years." (Right) A "giant leap for mankind" gave the Sophomores a giant leap into first place. (Below) The Freshmen captured second place with their Cabbage Patch float. (Middle right) "We Are The World" left the disappointed Juniors with fourth place. (Bottom left) Winning the third position was the Senior float which displayed events from the past three decades. (Bottom right) Freshmen Sabry Reyeros, Deanna Anczak and Dee Dee Boyd had a chance to "clown around" in the Homecoming Parade.
